Introduction to R

1.6 Tips to Get Started
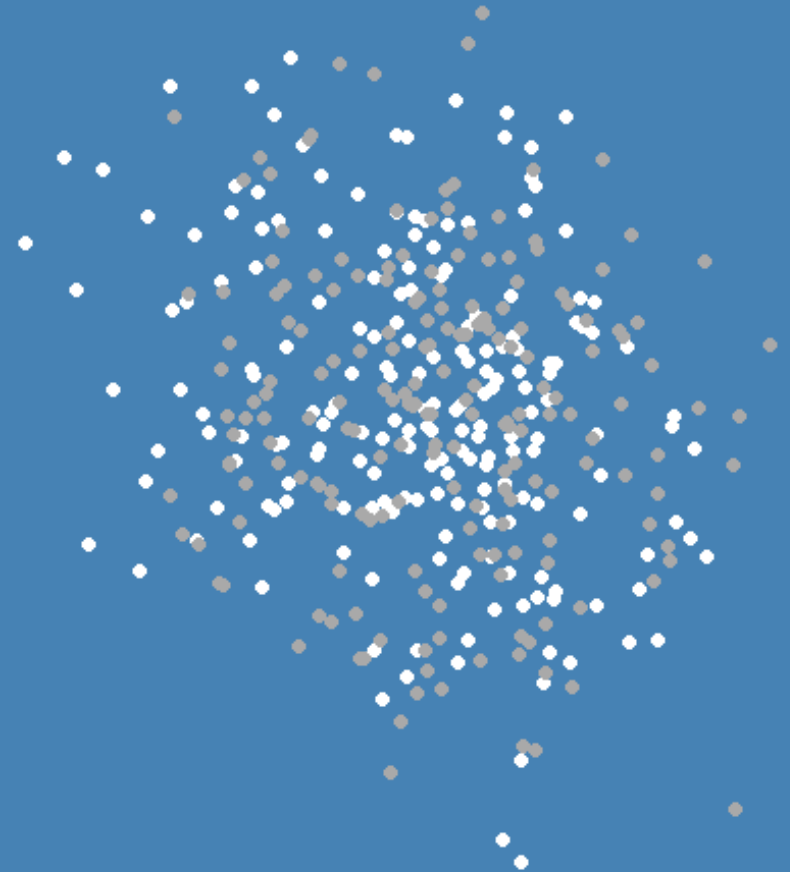

Lion Behrens, M.Sc.

UNIVERSITY OF MANNHEIM

University of Mannheim
Chair of Social Data Science and Methodology
Chair of Quantitative Methods in the Social Sciences

Tip 1: Write short and concise object names

Tip 2: Write a maximum of 80 characters of code per line

Tip 3: Name sections in your R script

Tip 4: Indent your code by the arguments of a function

Tip 5: Use set.seed() for reproducability

Tip 6: The best way to learn R is doing R

Tip 7: Get help online